FACILITIES

The Oklahoma State Equestrian team utilizes a number of areas for their practices and upkeep of their horses.

The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center is located on a 50-acre farm located on the corner of McElroy and Western and a 44-acre pasture on Sangre Road. The main practice arena is the Atherton Family Arena, which is a 135 by 270 square foot covered arena that has wind screens on the north and west sides. The team also uses the 140 by 75 square foot outdoor arena and the Totusek Indoor Arena, which is a 100 by 200 foot climate controlled arena.

The team maintains approximately 60 head of horses used for practice and NCEA collegiate competitions. The horse herd consists of both Western and Jumping Seat horses that were acquired from donors across the country.

The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center consists of a saddling barn that includes coaches' offices, locker rooms, a tack room and an athletic training satellite office. It also has a 24-stall horse barn with outdoor runs and several paddocks and pastures.

The program is scheduled to start construction in the fall of 2021 on its team building, which will be a multipurpose facility that includes a team lounge with study area and a fueling station.

COACHES & STAFF

COACHING STAFF

Larry Sanchez

Head Coach
23rd year at OSU

The only head coach in Oklahoma State Equestrian history, Larry Sanchez has built one of the nation's top programs in Stillwater.

Sanchez enters his 23rd season leading the Cowgirls in 2021-22 as OSU looks to continue its standing among college's most prominent team.

The numbers OSU has compiled in over two decades of competition under Sanchez speak for themselves.

- Six NCEA national championships
- Seven Big 12 Conference championships
- 60 All-Americans
- 23 individual national champions
- Six NCEA national championships
- Over 150 Academic All-Big 12 performers

Under the guidance of Sanchez, Oklahoma State Equestrian has made its presence known at the NCEA National Championships every year, winning titles in 2000, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2013. Sanchez also led the Cowgirls to Big 12 crowns in 2009, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2016, 2018, and 2021.

As one of the most respected and successful equestrian coaches in the country, Sanchez has been essential in the sport's move toward varsity recognition.

A native of Colorado, Sanchez began his intercollegiate coaching career at New Mexico State in 1993 and quickly organized one of the nation's top programs in the IHSA. Under his leadership, NMSU won national titles in 1995, 1997 and 1998.

Sanchez moved to Stillwater to launch Oklahoma State's team in 1999. In his 23-year coaching career at OSU, 15 of his qualifying teams have placed in the top four at the national level. Additionally, he has coached an impressive 23 riders to individual national championships and 13 riders to reserve championships.

OSU's success under Sanchez began almost immediately as his 2000 team won the program's first NCEA national championship. The Cowgirls then won four-straight NCEA titles from 2003-06.

During his years leading the Oklahoma State program, Sanchez has earned his share of individual coaching accolades, including being named the Big 12 Coach of the Year five times.

In 2013, he earned both NCEA and Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year honors after leading the Cowgirls to their third Big 12 Championship and third NCEA Western National Championship.

In 2014, Sanchez added another impressive accomplishment to his resume, becoming the first coach in Big 12 Equestrian history to lead his team to three consecutive Big 12 championships.

During his time at Oklahoma State, Sanchez has coached numerous All-America and All-Big 12 honorees. Since 2011, Stillwater has been home to 60 NCEA All-America selections.

Thirty-two different Cowgirls have earned All-America honors. Three of those - Lauren Halvorson, Harley Huff and Kary Krshka - earned All-America accolades four times in their distinguished careers, while the list of OSU three-time All-Americans includes six Cowgirls: Jenna Blumer, Abigail Brayman, Jorden Davis, Ebba Lange, Lindsey McMullen and Hannah Mitchell.

Under Sanchez's watch, 16 Cowgirls have been named Big 12 Rider of the Year in their respective disciplines, and OSU has had 44 All-Big 12 honorees since the conference began recognizing those in 2012.

Sanchez's riders have found great success in the classroom as well. The program's emphasis on academic success is evident in the team's frequent appearances on Big 12 and NCEA honor rolls. OSU has earned 155 selections to Academic All-Big 12 teams, and four Cowgirls have been named the Big 12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Sanchez completed the coursework for his M.A. in agricultural education at New Mexico State and received his B.S. in equine science from Colorado State. He is a carded judge, breeder and competitor within the American Quarter Horse Association.

Larry and his wife, Julie, who is a registered nurse, have two children, a son, Colton, and a daughter, Caitlyn.

COACHING STAFF

Laura Brainard
Assistant Coach | Western
Third year at OSU

Entering her third season as Oklahoma State's Western assistant coach is Laura Brainard.

During her short time in Stillwater, Brainard has coached four All-Americans and a Big 12 rider of the year, and four Cowgirls have earned All-Big 12 honors under her tutelage.

In her first season, one shortened by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Cowgirls posted a 9-3 record, and Harley Huff and Emma Verplank earned first-team All-America honors in Horsemanship. Huff was also named the Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year, while Verplank, Huff and Hannah Mitchell collected All-Big 12 accolades.

Last season, Brainard helped the Cowgirls capture the seventh Big 12 championship in program history. Under her guidance, Huff captured Big 12 Horsemanship Rider of the Year and Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year honors and was named a second-team All-American, while Jojo Roberson was tabbed an All-American for the first time in her career.

In 2021, Brainard's reining and horsemanship teams also helped advance the Cowgirls to the semifinals of the NCEA Championship.

Brainard spent the 2019-20 season at Baylor, where she assisted in coaching the Bears' reining squad to a No. 1 ranking heading into national competition. Her guidance helped Sydney Scheckel to first-team All-America and Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year honors. Brainard's Bears took home the 2019 Big 12 Championship and the horsemanship team advanced to the semifinals of the NCEA Championship.

Before her time at Baylor, Brainard coached three years at Georgia as the assistant western coach. She helped lead the Bulldogs to back-to-back SEC Championships and back-to-back NCEA National Championship runner-up finishes in 2017 and 2018.

Two of Brainard's former riders at Georgia, Graysen Stroud and Jordan Carpenter, garnered All-America honors in reining in the 2019-20 season. Stroud was also named Co-NCEA Reining Rider of the Year.

In the 2017-18 season, Brainard helped coach two SEC Riders of the Year and totaled five All-America honors.

During Brainard's three years at Georgia, her Western student-athletes collected 13 All-America selections.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Brainard was a volunteer assistant coach at her alma mater, Texas A&M, following a standout career as rider.

In her four years with the Aggies, Texas A&M collected consecutive western national titles in 2011 and 2012, as well as the overall team title in 2012. She earned All-SEC status in Horsemanship her junior season.

Brainard graduated with a B.S. in Agriculture Economics from Texas A&M in 2013 before completing her Master of Science degree in Agricultural Leadership, Education and Communications in May of 2015. She is also a third generation NRHA judge.

COACHING STAFF

Olivia Dorey

Assistant Coach | Jumping Seat
Third year at OSU

Olivia Dorey is entering her third season as Oklahoma State's Jumping Seat assistant coach.

Six Cowgirls have achieved All-America status over the last two seasons under Dorey's direction. In 2019-20, Sydney North and Abigail Brayman picked up All-America honors, and last season, Brayman, Katie Schell, Emma Pacyna and Katie Pelzel were All-Americans, with Schell earning first-team status.

Along with those honors, both Brayman and Schell were All-Big 12 performers, and Schell was the 2021 Big 12 Equitation Over Fences Rider of the Year.

Last season, Dorey assisted the Cowgirls to their seventh Big 12 Championship title in program history, and her fences and flat teams helped advance OSU to the semifinals of the NCEA Championship.

A four-time letter winner at the University of Georgia, Dorey accumulated multiple awards during her time in Athens.

On the Flat, she was a member of the 2014 All-SEC team and was a NCEA All-American Honorable Mention selection. As a team captain her senior year, Dorey recorded a 95 in Equitation on the Flat against Texas A&M, a mark that's tied for fifth all time according to the NCEA record book. Her 2014 Bulldog squad went on to become national champions later that year.

In 2013, Dorey earned a spot on the All-SEC Fences team en route to garnering first-team All-America honors in Fences.

Dorey excelled not only in the arena, but in the classroom as well. She was a three-time NCEA Academic All-America first-team selection who was featured on the SEC Academic Honor Roll from 2012-2014. Dorey graduated Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Banking and Finance.

Prior to OSU, Dorey worked for Broadridge Financial Solutions as an Operations Analyst in its Career Foundations Program.

COACHING STAFF

Sara Chappell

Herd Manager
Third year at OSU

Chappell is in her third year as the herd manager for Oklahoma State.

A native of Angwin, California, Chappell graduated from Pacific Union College Preparatory Schoel before attending the University of Findlay in Findlay, Ohio. While there, she was a member of the Western IHSA team for a year and a member of the Stock Horse team and graduated with a B.S. in Equine Science and Equine Business Management in 2013.

After graduation, Chappell worked at Stony B Acres in Bernardston, Massachusetts, where she was assistant barn manager and riding instructor. She was also part of the International Horse Clinics that AQHA offered through various universities. The University of Findlay staff chose four students to travel abroad and help give clinics in several countries, and Chappell was selected for clinics in Austria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, and the Netherlands.

In the fall of 2013, Chappell returned to Ohio to work for Randy Wilson Quarter Horses. As an assistant for Wilson, she rode, handled yearlings, started horses under saddle and managed all his horses' health.

After working with Wilson for five years, Chappell moved to Oklahoma and became barn manager for Starland Ranch LLC in El Reno, where she cared for all the broodmares and foals while also helping their trainer start horses' saddle.

Chappell and her husband, Joshua, were married in 2021.

Kate Pollard

Director of Operations
Fifth year at OSU

Kate Pollard is in her fifth year as the director of operations after joining the OSU staff in 2017.

An El Paso, Texas native, Pollard's primary duties include the oversight of all administrative duties of the team, care and maintenance of the horses and arranging travel for the program.

Pollard previously worked as the director of operations for the Kansas State equestrian team before its' final season in 2015-2016. Pollard served as a graduate assistant with the Wildcats from 2010-13 and as the team's assistant Western coach for two seasons from 2013-15.

Prior to her time in Manhattan, Pollard rode for the New Mexico State equestrian team from 2005-09. At the Varsity Equestrian National Championship in 2005, she helped the western team to a fifth place-finish. In 2006, she competed on the Western team that finished third for an NMSU squad that was sixth overall. As a senior, she qualified for the 2009 VENC as an individual rider in both Horsemanship and Reining, finishing in the Top 4 in both events.

2020-21 SEASON REVIEW

2020-21 SEASON IN REVIEW

Despite a schedule heavily impacted by the COVID-19 global pandemic, Oklahoma State celebrated another championship season in 2020-21 and achieved numerous milestones and accolades along the way.

The Cowgirls finished the seaso with a 7-2 overall record, which included a 3-1 showing in Big 12 Conference action.

Afte not competing in the fall, OSU had its first two scheduled meets of the spring canceled, but the Cowgirls were finally able to compete and open their season on Feb. 21 at TCU.

OSU took a loss against the Horned Frogs, but the Cowgirls would not lose again during the regular season as they reeled off four consecutive wins in March to propel them into the postseason.

The first of those victories came against Baylor, as the host Cowgirls were 14-6 victors fueled by MOP efforts from Sydnee Gemar, Abigail Brayman and Katie Pelzel.

Up next, OSU faced Fresno State in a neutral site Big 12 meet in Fort Worth, Texas. This time, the Cowgirls emerged 8-7 winners, with Brayman and Gemar again earned MOP honors.

Returning home to Stillwater, the Cowgirls would defeat TCU, 13-5, in mid-March as Emma Pacyna and Hannah Coleman leading the way with MOP rides.

OSU's final regular season test came at Baylor, and the Cowgirls passed with flying colors, picking up an 11-8 road win. OSU claimed MOPs in every discipline as Pacyna, Brayman, Harley Huff and Stephanie Helsen achieved that status.

The Cowgirls carried that momentum into the Big 12 Equestrian Championship in Waco. Top-seeded OSU knocked off host Baylor by a 12-8 margin before besting TCU, 11-9, in the finals to claim the program's seventh conference crown.

Huff capped her career by earning Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year honors for the fourth consecutive time, while she was also named the Big 12 Horsemanship Rider of the Year for the third time.

Joining Huff as a Big 12 individual award winner was Katie Schell, who was named the 2021 Big 12 Equitation Over Fences Rider of the Year.

Along with Huff and Schell, Brayman earned All-Big 12 accolades for the Cowgirls.

With their sights on the NCEA Championship, OSU returned to Waco and opened the tourney with a 10-6 triumph over Fresno State to advance to the national semifinals.

In the semis, OSU's season would come to a close as the second-ranked Cowgirls came up on the short end of a 10-6 score against Georgia.

OSU capped its season by seeing six Cowgirls named NCEA All-Americans, with Schell earning first-team status and Brayman and Huff collecting second-team honors. Jojo Roberson, Pacyna Pelzel were honorable mention performers, with each earning the first All-America plaudits of their respective careers.

COWGIRL ALL-AMERICANS

Oklahoma State counts 60 All-America honors in its program history, and 32 different Cowgirls have earned All-America status in their careers. Three Cowgirls - Lauren Halvorson, Harley Huff and Kary Krshka - earned All-America accolades four times in their distinguished careers. The list of OSU three-time All-Americans includes six Cowgirls: Jenna Blumer, Abigail Brayman, Jorden Davis, Ebba Lange, Lindsey McMullen and Hannah Mitchell. The NCEA began naming All-American teams for the 2010-11 season.

UNIVERSITY

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

The story of Oklahoma State University began on Christmas Eve, 1890, at the McKennon Opera House in Oklahoma's territorial capital of Guthrie when Territorial Governor George W. Steele signed legislation establishing an Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College (OAMC) in Payne County. OAMC's first students assembled for class on December 14, 1891, even though there were no buildings, no books, and no curriculum. The college's first students attended classes in the Stillwater Congregational Church. The original campus consisted of 200 acres of prairie that were donated by four local homesteaders. The college's first six graduates received their diplomas in 1896.

Visitors to the OSU campus often marvel at its beauty and consistency of architecture. Much of the credit goes to legendary president, Henry G. Bennett, who served from 1928-1951. Dr. Bennett's 25-year campus master plan envisioned some of the university's most famous and beautiful structures, including the Edmon Low Library and the OSU Student Union. Under the direction of OSU President Burns Hargis, a new campus master plan is guiding unprecedented construction that is making OSU more competitive in academics and athletics. Starting in the fall of 2008, OSU has opened the Multimodal Transportation Terminal, the North Classroom Building, the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium, refurbished Old Central, the Donald W. Reynolds Architecture Building, an upgraded Murray Hall, the Henry Bellmon Research Center, an updated and expanded Student Union, the Greenwood Tennis Center, the north wing to the College of Human Sciences building, an upgraded Atherton Hotel in the Student Union, the innovative University Commons residential complex and dining facility, the crescent-shaped business building, and the world-class ENDEAVOR facility for interdisciplinary research. In October 2019, OSU opened the magnificent McKnight Center for the Performing Arts with the New York Philharmonic. The next major facility opening will be the top-tier O'Brate Stadium for baseball. Hall of Fame Avenue on the north and University Avenue on the south, as well as core north-south artery Monroe Street, have all been significantly upgraded, and the university continues to update its campus landscape plan, including the addition of a Welcome Plaza southeast of the Student Union.

OSU grew quite rapidly following World War II. The post-war years were marked by a huge enrollment surge and the thriving "Veteran's Village" on the northwest edge of campus as veterans and their families moved into surplus military housing provided by the college. The mid-1940s also were a golden era for athletics at Oklahoma A&M. In a 90-day period in early 1945, OAMC teams won the Cotton Bowl, the NCAA championship in wrestling, and the NCAA championship in basketball. In 2016, the undefeated 1945 football team was retroactively awarded the national championship trophy by the American Football Coaches Association. In 1946, the wrestling and basketball teams repeated as national champions, and the football team won the Sugar Bowl.

Coaches and players from that era are now sports legends. Coach Henry Iba set a national standard in basketball and Edward Gallagher took OAMC wrestling teams to international prominence.

People often ask when OSU made the transition from college to university. By the 1950s the college had grown substantially and in 1957 OAMC became The Oklahoma State University for Agriculture and Applied Science. During the next three decades, OSU would build academic programs to match its new status. Enrollment more than doubled from 10,385 in 1957 to more than 23,000 in the 1980s. OSU became a statewide university system, adding branches in Okmulgee in 1946 and Oklahoma City in 1961. OSU merged with the Oklahoma College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1988, and OSU-Tulsa was born in 1999.

Today, OSU has 35,000 students across five campuses and a presence in every Oklahoma county through its extension offices and experiment stations. From six graduates in 1896, to 5,000 annually today, the small college on the prairie has grown and prospered far beyond the dreams of its founders. OSU teaching, research and graduates are making a bigger impact on the lives of people around the world than ever before. It's a great time to be a Cowboy!

Oklahoma State University, in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid, and educational services. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information. The Director of Equal Opportunity, 408 Whitehurst, OSU, Stillwater, OK 74078-1035; Phone 405-744-5371; email: eeo@okstate.edu has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity. Any person (student, faculty, or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based on gender may discuss his or her concerns and file informal or formal complaints of possible violations of Title IX with OSU's Title IX Coordinator 405-744-9154." UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT DR. KAYSE SHRUM

Dr. Kayse Shrum

University President
First Year | OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine

On April 2, 2021, the OSU/A&M Board of Regents selected Dr. Kayse Shrum as the 19th president of Oklahoma State University. A native Oklahoman, President Shrum earned her doctor of osteopathic medicine degree from the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and has completed executive leadership and management training programs at Harvard University and Stanford University.

In 2013, Dr. Shrum was named president of OSU Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS), becoming the youngest and first female president and dean of a medical school in the state of Oklahoma. She joined the OSU-CHS medical school faculty in 2002. In 2011, she was named provost of OSU-CHS and dean of the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and served in that capacity until her promotion to president in 2013. Dr. Shrum holds the George Kaiser Family Foundation Chair in Medical Excellence and Service and the Saint Francis Health System Endowed Chair of Pediatrics. In March 2019, Oklahoma Governor Kevin Stitt appointed her to his Cabinet as Secretary of Science and Innovation. During her time in the Cabinet, she led Oklahoma's rapid response in COVID-19 testing expansion across the state and advised state leadership on COVID medical and protocol guidance.

Under her leadership, OSU-CHS experienced unprecedented growth. Student enrollment more than doubled as new academic programs were established to meet the healthcare workforce needs of Oklahoma. She also spearheaded the construction of the A.R. and Marylouise Tandy Medical Academic Building, a state-of-the-art learning facility that houses Oklahoma's largest and most technologically advanced hospital simulation center.

A strong supporter of collaborative partnerships, Dr. Shrum worked with Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Bill John Baker and his administration to establish the nation's first tribally affiliated medical school, the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine at the Cherokee Nation, which opened in fall 2020. Most recently, Dr. Shrum helped secure a landmark investment from Purdue Pharma in the amount of $197.5 million to create a center of excellence in addiction treatment and studies to address the opioid addiction epidemic in Oklahoma — the National Center for Wellness and Recovery.

During her tenure, she made addressing the health care workforce shortage in rural Oklahoma a top priority for OSU-CHS. A fervent champion of rural health and primary care medicine, Dr. Shrum led the strategic efforts to create a sustainable rural primary care physician pipeline program.

Dr. Shrum launched award-winning high school recruiting programs like Operation Orange and Blue Coat to White Coat, established the Rural Medical Track curriculum, and expanded the number of residency training programs in rural Oklahoma by securing support from the Oklahoma Legislature, Oklahoma Health Care Authority and Oklahoma Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust.

Dr. Shrum is active in a variety of charitable and professional organizations. She is a board member of the Children's Hospital Foundation at Saint Francis, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Oklahoma, State Chamber of Oklahoma, PLICO, Oklahoma Hall of Fame, Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, Oklahoma State University Medical Authority and Trust, Texas A&M Center for Optimizing Rural Health, and Women for OSU Council. She holds committee positions in osteopathic professional organizations including the American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicines, American Osteopathic Association, and American Osteopathic Board of Pediatrics.

Dr. Shrum has been recognized for her leadership and contributions to her community and profession. Her honors include:

- 2019 inductee into Connors State College Alumni Hall of Fame
- 2019 Tulsa Osteopathic Medical Society Osteopathic Impact Award
- 2019 Journal Record's 2019 Woman of Year Award
- 2018 Newsmaker Award by the Association for Women in Communications Tulsa Chapter
- 2014 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association's Outstanding & Distinguished Service Award
- 2013 inductee into Connors State College Athletics Hall of Fame
- 2012 Tulsa Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women's Pinnacle Award for Health

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR CHAD WEIBERG

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director
First Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years serving as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director.

As OSU's Deputy Athletic Director, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefitted student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes. In 2020, Weiberg played a role in launching - and continues to serve as a member of - the Oklahoma State Athletics Council for Diversity and Inclusion.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium and the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a bachelor of business administration degree. He earned a master's in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a large role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as commissioner of the Big 12.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

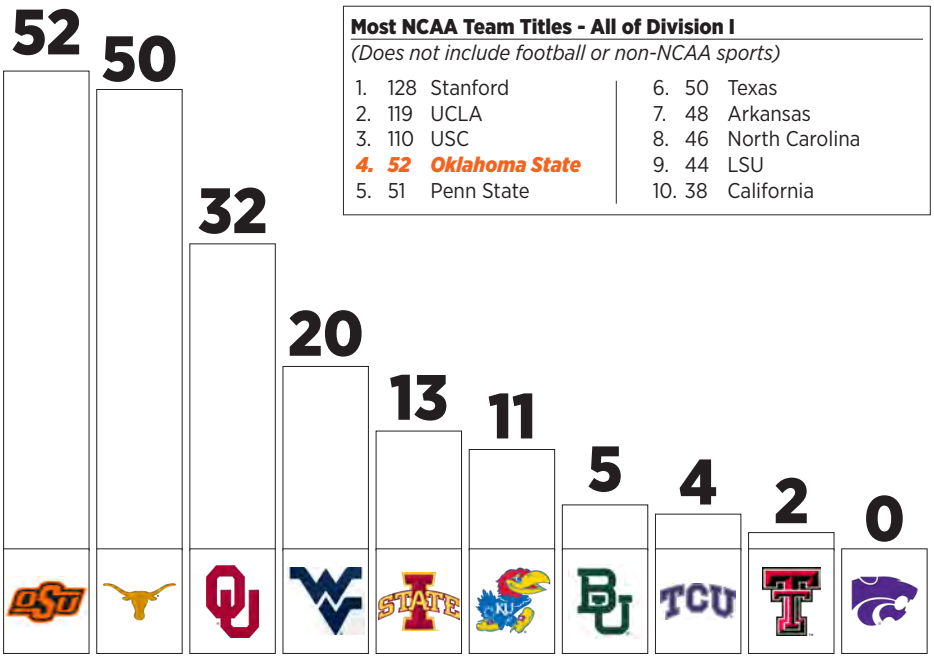
NCAA Team Championships

Oklahoma State leads the Big 12 and ranks fourth nationally with 52 NCAA team titles.



Most NCAA Team Titles - All of Division I

(Does not include football or non-NCAA sports)

1.	128	Stanford	6.	50	Texas
2.	119	UCLA	7.	48	Arkansas
3.	110	USC	8.	46	North Carolina
4.	52	Oklahoma State	9.	44	LSU
5.	51	Penn State	10.	38	California

Very few athletic departments produce the kind of consistent success found at Oklahoma State. OSU has won 52 NCAA team championships - a mark that ranks fourth among all Division I schools.

OSU boasts NCAA team championships in five different sports – wrestling (34 titles), men's golf (11 titles), men's cross country (four titles), men's basketball (two titles) and baseball (one title). Additionally, OSU football and equestrian have been recognized as national champions by other organizations.

That same success translates on the conference level, where Oklahoma State has amassed 322 team conference championships entering the 2021-22 academic year. A team-by-team look at OSU Athletics:

OKLAHOMA STATE SPIRIT

The Cowboy Trail

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.
